

WHO LIVES WHERE???

(Baker Street Activity for Occupations / Hobbies)

David plays soccer.

The person in #12 likes tennis.

Eva is married.

Alice is single.

The single woman lives next to the married man.

The married woman likes to sing.

The soccer player is a student.

The doctor plays tennis.

The person in #18 likes golf.

The occupations represented on Baker Street are teacher, waitress, doctor, banker, and student.

The football player likes to read.

The single man and single woman like to play chess.

The married woman is a doctor.

Alice is a waitress.

Ben likes to cook.

The teacher watches football on TV.

Charles lives between David and Ben.

The favorite sport at #13 is soccer.

Alice lives in #20.

The single woman likes swimming.

The single man lives between a married woman and a divorced man.

The banker likes golf.

New Words for Baker Street Activity

play(s)	soccer	person	married	next to
live(s)	tennis	student	single	between
like(s)	swimming	waitress	favorite
—to read	golf	cook
—to cook		teacher
—to play chess		banker
—to sing
watch(es)

play(s)	soccer	person	married	next to
live(s)	tennis	student	single	between
like(s)	swimming	waitress	favorite
—to read	golf	cook
—to cook		teacher
—to play chess		banker
—to sing
watch(es)

play(s)	soccer	person	married	next to
live(s)	tennis	student	single	between
like(s)	swimming	waitress	favorite
—to read	golf	cook
—to cook		teacher
—to play chess		banker
—to sing
watch(es)

Useful Phrases for Problem-Solving Activity

Useful phrases in problem-solving:

Why don't we try ?	Great idea!	I'm not sure that . . .
How 'bout ?	I like that idea!	That might be OK, but . . .
Maybe we could try . . .	Very good!	I see what you mean, but . . .
I have an idea!	'Way to go!	That's true, but . . .
Let's see if . . .	This might work. . .	I don't know about that!
Perhaps it would work to . . .

Useful phrases in problem-solving:

Why don't we try ?	Great idea!	I'm not sure that . . .
How 'bout ?	I like that idea!	That might be OK, but . . .
Maybe we could try . . .	Very good!	I see what you mean, but . . .
I have an idea!	'Way to go!	That's true, but . . .
Let's see if . . .	This might work. . .	I don't know about that!
Perhaps it would work to . . .

Useful phrases in problem-solving:

Why don't we try ?	Great idea!	I'm not sure that . . .
How 'bout ?	I like that idea!	That might be OK, but . . .
Maybe we could try . . .	Very good!	I see what you mean, but . . .
I have an idea!	'Way to go!	That's true, but . . .
Let's see if . . .	This might work. . .	I don't know about that!
Perhaps it would work to . . .

Useful phrases in problem-solving:

Why don't we try ?	Great idea!	I'm not sure that . . .
How 'bout ?	I like that idea!	That might be OK, but . . .
Maybe we could try . . .	Very good!	I see what you mean, but . . .
I have an idea!	'Way to go!	That's true, but . . .
Let's see if . . .	This might work. . .	I don't know about that!
Perhaps it would work to . . .

Baker Street Apartments

For Occupations and Hobbies

To the left of column one, label each row of cells (name, marital status, sport, occupation, and hobby).

	12	14	16	18	20

ANSWER KEY:

(Cover Answer Key when duplicating this page for students)

12	14	16	18	20
Eva	David	Charles	Ben	Alice
married	single	divorced	married	single
tennis	soccer	football	golf	swimming
doctor	student	teacher	banker	waitress
singing	playing chess	reading	cooking	playing chess